Mayor Dory Visits Cloverdale JAG

Mayor Bill Dory of Greencastle stopped by to visit with the Cloverdale High School JAG classes in September. He shared his perspective on a host of topics including servant leadership, the importance of gaining employability skills, marketing oneself, and gave an insight into public service as a profession.

First National Bank Visit

Former Cloverdale JAG student Jordan Harrell, and her supervisor Todd Lewis of First National Bank of Cloverdale came and spoke with the current JAG students about how businesses are financed, advice for job seekers, and presented on the concept of "beginning with the end in mind." Jordan also talked about her time since graduation and answered any student questions. Jordan started at the bank on a work experience and once that was over, the bank hired her on full time. She is now the Operations Clerk for the bank.

McDonalds Visit

Rhonda, General Manager of McDonald's, and Carrie, Manager of Cloverdale McDonald's spoke to students about an overview of McDonald's, employment opportunities, described incentives and benefits of working for McDonald's, McDonald's and JAG being corporate partners, and insight into best workplace practices.

JoMar Seeds Visits Cloverdale JAG

Bryan Gerard, President and Owner of JoMar Seeds spoke with JAG Students. Gerard provided insight into what his company and many others look for in applicants, shared his perspective on owning and operating a business, and stressed the importance of having long term plans while focusing on short term goals.

Marine and Former JAG Student Visit Cloverdale

Class of 2018 Cloverdale High School and JAG Graduate Private Calvin Taylor spoke with CHS students about his experiences after graduation, which included basic training in the United States Marine Corps in San Diego, California. Taylor recently graduated from his initial training experiences and takes great pride in serving his country.

Cheerleaders Receive Recognition

Several members of the CHS JAG also are active in the school as Varsity Cheerleaders. Here they are receiving recognition at the Fall Sports Banquet.

Parker Watts Selected Athlete of the Week

Cloverdale JAG Student Parker Watts was selected the Banner Graphic Athlete of the Week September 18th.

Northview Freshman Picnic

Our Northview JAG Students host a picnic each year to welcome Freshman to High School.

12 Trees of Christmas

For the 6th year, the Northview JAG program completed their 12 Trees of Christmas service project. The students work to obtain Christmas trees for needy families. They also work with Northviews special need students to help create handmade ornaments as well as ornaments and supplies that are donated to them. The students then deliver the trees and supplies prior to Christmas.

Shakayla Bell is with Jag Northview HS and 3 others.

Parke Heritage

College Go Week

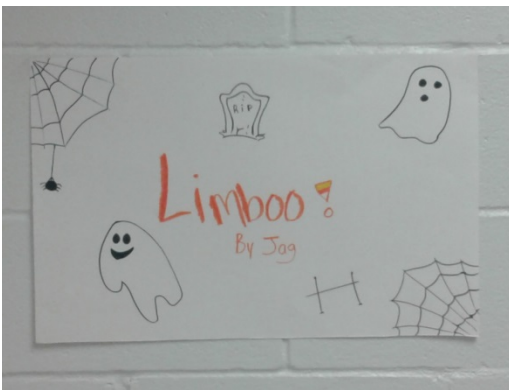

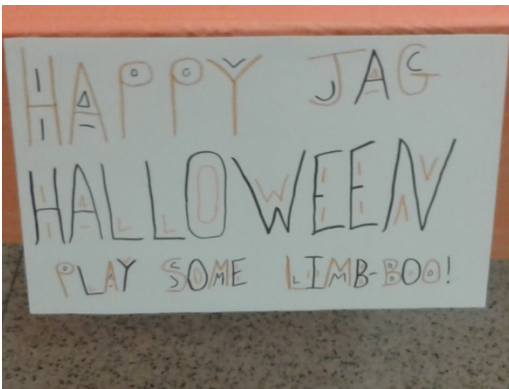

Riverton Parke and Parke Heritage Students participated in College Go Week activities. Students picked out a college or university of their choice and then created a pennant for that school by answering questions about it.

Hall-O-Ween

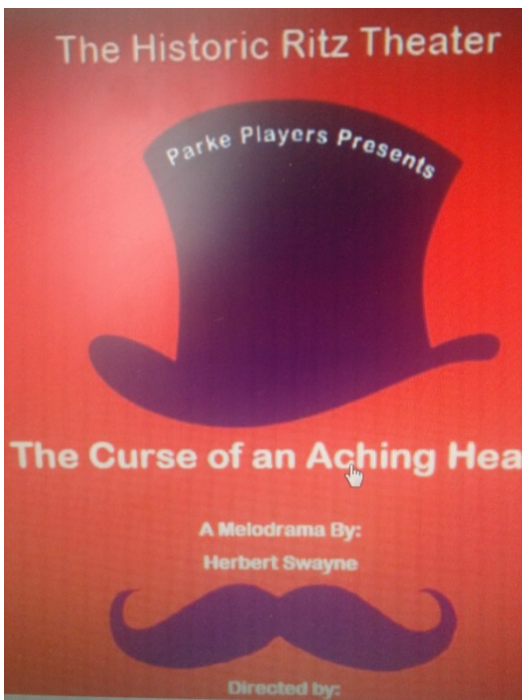

Originally planned as a Trunk or Treat event, the Parke Heritage event turned into Hall-o-Ween. Due to the weather we moved everything indoors down the hallways. Our game was limb-boo (limbo) and we passed out a lot of candy. The students had more fun than the little kids. The students that helped out were: Shelbi Pruett, Tanner Sasin, Katie Snodgrass, Ling Xiong, Joey Keller, Dalton Vandivier, Quinton Norman, Will Swinney, and Jacob Brown.

Parke Heritage Duo Takes the Stage

Two Senior JAG students from Parke Heritage High School recently participated in the local Parke Players Melodrama at The Historic Ritz Theater during The Covered Bridge Festival. The name of the play was, "The Curse of an Aching Heart" and was preformed six times over the ten day festival. Dennis Pratt played the lead role of Windermere Hightower and Alex Anderson played Lucius Goodneugh. These two students put in countless hours of rehearsal time between school and work. Your JAG family is very proud of you and can't wait until your next performance.

High School Heisman Winner

Katie Snodgrass of Parke Heritage was recently awarded the Wendy's High School Heisman Award. She is a cheerleader and was recognized for her outstanding academics and community service.

Riverton Parke

Out of Darkness Walk

Parke Heritage students recently participated in the Parke County Out of the Darkness walk put on by the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. This was something the students participated in as part of JAG Indiana's Statewide Service Learning Initiative, Mental Health Awareness. The students walked 2.8 miles and listened to various speakers on the topic of mental health and suicide prevention.

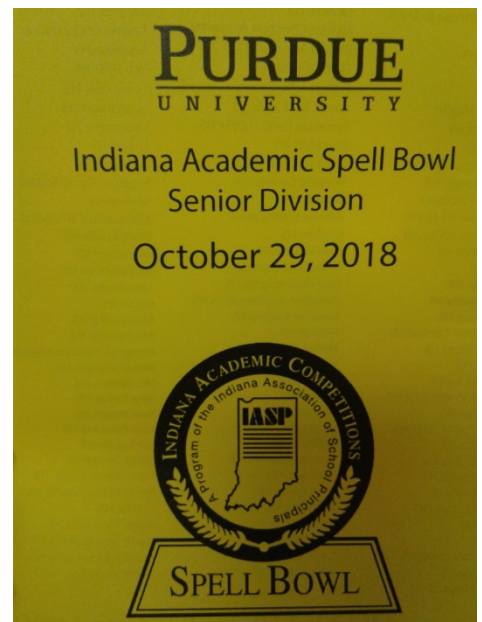

Spell Bowl Champions!

Congratulations to JAG students Caitlin Woods and Addeline Moeller who are juniors at Riverton Parke. They were part of a team of 10 that won the Spell Bowl State Championship on November 17th at Purdue.

Regional Spell Bowl

Riverton Parke and Parke Heritage JAG students participated in the Regional Spell Bowl at Terre Haute South on October 29. Riverton Parke won 1st place and will be moving on to the state level. Members are Caitlin Woods and Addeline Moeller. Parke Heritage won 2nd place and the JAG members are Tanner Sasin, Ling Xiong, and Katie Snodgrass. These students have practiced for weeks to learn a list of over 2,000 very difficult words. Thank you!

Baskets of Cheer!

The Riverton Parke JAG students along with members from National Honor Society and the FACS class put together Baskets of Cheer for Area 7 Agency on Aging and Disabled. The baskets were filled with common household items that are sometimes hard to get on a fixed income. The baskets will be given to elderly people with physical and mental disabilities. The students were able to fill 6 large laundry baskets of items and presented them to an Area 7 representative on December 12.

Sullivan

College Fair

Sullivan JAG helped host a College Fair as part of College Go Week. They had representatives of 12 different post-secondary options on hand to speak to students. The Students also attended the Go Ivy Day at Ivy Tech.

Kaylee Honaker Awarded Ivy Tech Scholarship

Terre Haute North

Root Beer Float Fundraiser

Terre Haute North JAG students raised money for their Mental Health service project by selling Root Beer or Orange Ice Cream floats at the Terre Haute North / Terre Haute South Volleyball game.

Vincennes University Trip

Recently, Terre Haute North JAG Students toured Vincennes University.

Terre Haute South

High School Meetup at Launch Terre Haute

Students from Terre Haute South attended to listen to the owners of Twisted Fry, a local food truck about starting and running your own business. They also heard from Lindsay Jones, Branch Manager of Fifth Third Bank about the importance of having bank accounts and how those can help them. Lastly, they heard from Shelley Klingerman, Executive Director of Launch Terre Haute to tell them about what Launch is and get input from them about what would keep them in the Terre Haute area after graduation.

West Vigo

Fall Cleanup and Adopt a Street

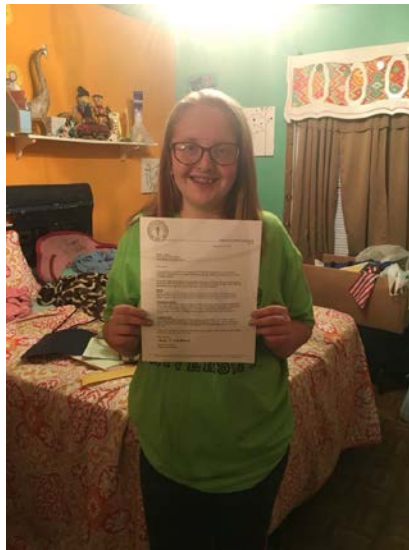

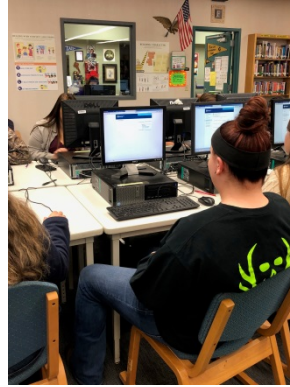

Recently West Vigo JAG students helped spruce up West Terre Haute. The students cleaned up a flower box, weeded, cut tree overgrowth, removed old mulch, and planted Mums. They will soon be adding a student made sign, along with some pumpkins and straw.

College Go Week!

West Vigo Students submitting applications to college. 14 students have been accepted so far!

JAG SWAG Store

Johnson Complete Boot Camp

This summer, West Vigo student Arrin Johnson, completed 10 week Army Boot Camp at Fort Jackson over the summer before starting his senior year this year.

Congratulations Arrin!

Guest Speaker Trent Short Local 204 Field Representative

Laborers' International Union of North American Local 204 Field Representative, Trent Short, spoke to JAG seniors. He shared how entering a trade fresh out of high school to continue his family bloodline of representing the Laborers' Union built his foundation of being successful. As a graduate of WVHS he explained that JAG Seniors can also be successful as a laborer, just like both of his sons have done by joining the Laborers' Union. Trent encouraged them to have a mindset of being willing to learn and accepting of being told what to do by a boss, will guarantee their success.

Fall Get Together

West Vigo JAG students had a Fall Get Together. The activities included a cookout, hayride, and s'more making.
